Jewelry with Wire

When a project looks so gorgeous, it doesn't seem like it would be easy to make! That's why the looped and turned pieces of wire that make all the exciting jewelry pieces in this book are amazing! They are beautiful projects that are surprisingly simple to create!

Tools

- Needle nose pliers
  - Round nose pliers
  - Flat nose pliers
  - Wire cutters
- Do not mark or scratch wire while shaping it. Good jewelry pliers are smooth and will not damage wire.

Tip - Cover the end of rough pliers with masking tape. Use a small file to smooth sharp or rough wire ends.

Wire

- 20 gauge Silver wire or 20 gauge colored wire or small paper clips

Beads

- Seed beads, E-beads, small shell beads or cat's eye beads

Stones

- Flat stones with a channel edge

A friend of mine does all her shopping from upscale gift catalogs or on the web.

She showed me some gorgeous wire jewelry that was being offered in catalogs. When I showed her a copy of Jewelry with Wire, she walked off muttering something about making all her gifts next year, and now you can, too!

Be sure you make a few really gorgeous jewelry pieces for yourself!

First, thread wire through all beads needed for the entire project.

Twist wire into each shape, then cut wire after each shape.

Twisting the end of a long piece of wire into each shape before you cut off the small pieces will speed up your work.

Use Pliers to Shape Wire

Stretch wire by pulling it through flat nose pliers to strengthen it.
Thread wire thru all the beads needed for a project first.

Twist wire into each shape, then cut wire after each shape.
This will speed up your work.
Hold wire firmly as you twist it around the tip of round nose pliers.

Move pliers along wires as illustrated to make loops for each shape.
Continue turning and twisting wire loops to create shapes, units and wiggles.

Cut off excess wire at the end of each shape. File any rough wire edges until smooth.

Basic Instructions for All Projects

All Illustrations are Actual Size

Use your choice of closures and chains on any bracelet or necklace.

Hook and Eye Closure with Double Loop Chain.

Toggle and Eye Closure with S-Loop Chain.

Closures

Hooks

1. Bend down one end and press to form a half loop. (Each hook uses about  $1\frac{1}{2}$ " of wire.)
2. Place wire at the middle of pliers shank. Bend the wire over shank.
3. Turn a loop in the wire to attach the hook.

Eyes

1. Begin about  $\frac{1}{8}$ " from one end to bend down one end to form a  $\frac{1}{3}$ " loop.
2. Turn a small loop. Wrap the end of the wire around both wires. Cut away any excess wire. (Each loop uses about 3" of wire.)

Toggles

1. Make an eye as instructed above. Press on the top of the larger loop to flatten it.
2. Pinch the larger loop with flat nose pliers to flatten the loop to form a tall thin loop. Insert the toggle into an eye. (Each uses about 3" of wire.)

Chain Styles

S - Hook

Make an S-hook according to the instructions on page. Twist one loop flat. (Each loop uses about 1" of wire.)

Pretzel

Fold wire ends across the center. Twist one loop flat. (Each loop uses about 1" of wire.)

Double Loop

Turn a loop in the end of the wire. Turn another loop over the first one. Make another loop about  $\frac{1}{4}$ " away. Bend the wire end to the center of the double loops. Twist the long loop flat. (Each loop uses about 2" of wire.)

Bead Units

Loop Bead Units

1. Use round nose pliers to turn a loop in one end. To begin loop, bend down  $\frac{3}{8}$ " of wire.
2. Grasp wire end with pliers and roll it around to form a circle. Thread bead and turn a loop in the other end. (Each loop bead unit uses 1 to 2" of wire.)

Wrap Bead Units

Wrap bead units are stronger than loop bead units.

1. Thread a bead onto the wire. Use round nose pliers to bend down  $\frac{3}{8}$ " of wire.
2. Roll the wire into a loop and wrap the short end around the long end 4-5 times.

3. Pull bead up into place and turn another loop in the wire about  $\frac{1}{4}$ " from the bead.
4. Wrap the end of the wire around the wire beside the bead 4 or 5 times. Trim wire.

(Each wrap bead unit uses about 2" of wire.)

S - Hooks

1. Use round nose pliers to turn a loop in one end of the wire.
2. Turn another loop in the opposite direction at the other end of the wire. (Each loop uses about 1" of wire.)

Coils or Jump Rings

1. Hold a dowel, skewer, crochet hook or knitting needle in one hand. Press your thumb against the wire and dowel. Use the other hand to wrap wire tightly 4 times.
2. Remove coil from the dowel and cut off the ends of the wire. If desired, make a longer coil by using more wire and cut the coil as necessary to make the length desired. Tip - Cut coils apart to make jump rings.
